

Free legal help for Hurricane Ida in PA

877-429-5994

Low-income survivors facing legal issues due to Hurricane Ida may call 877-429-5994 Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.-1 p.m., or leave a message.

Examples of legal help available may include:

- Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) application & other benefits available to disaster survivors
- FEMA denials
- Replacement of identity documents (such as birth certificates, Social Security cards)
- Consumer protection matters
- Mortgage-foreclosure or landlord-tenant problems
- Life, medical, and property insurance claims
- Help with home repair contracts and contractors

What to expect when you call:

- Say that you are seeking storm-related legal assistance & give your county.
- You will be routed to the correct legal aid organization based on location.
- There are some limits on disaster legal services. For example, assistance is not available for cases that will produce a fee (i.e., those cases where fees are paid as part of a settlement or award from a court). Such cases will be referred to a lawyer referral service.

The assistance helpline, activated by Legal Aid of Southeastern PA, is in partnership with MidPenn Legal Services, North Penn Legal Services, Philadelphia Legal Assistance, the American Bar Association Young Lawyers Division, and FEMA. lasp.org/hurricane-ida
